

Target Market Statement: AXA XL

The purpose of this document is to explain the identified target market and the expected distribution strategy for each insurance product manufactured by AXA XL. Specifically, it provides information on a product category level about the main features and optional covers associated with each product and clarifies who our products are designed for and who they are not appropriate for. This Target Market Statement also explains the way our products should be distributed and provides information around the complexity of our products and how to ensure that a product provides fair value to our customers as intended.

Product Name: International Private Medical Insurance

Product Type:	International Private Medical Insurance
Who is the product designed for?	This product is designed for individuals seeking international private healthcare cover to meet their health and wellbeing needs, goals, and budget. It would therefore appeal to a target market which has: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• An interest in proactively investing in their health and wellbeing.• An interest in being able to access medical treatment anywhere in the world.• A desire to access private medical treatment of illnesses, diseases or injuries that arise after they join; and• The financial resources to pay for international private healthcare. This product gives customers the option of five plans along with the option to enhance their cover with optional benefits to meet their specific needs, objectives, and budget. The product is designed for individuals who are aged 18 to 80, at the point of joining, who are considered one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Expatriate – Customers who reside in a country other than their native home country. These customers are looking for healthcare cover that

AXA XL Insurance Company UK Limited
20 Gracechurch Street, London, EC3V 0BG, United Kingdom

Telephone: +44 (0)20 7626 0486 Fax: +44 (0)20 7623 9101 axaxl.com

Registered office: 20 Gracechurch Street, London, EC3V 0BG Registered in England No 5328622
AXA XL Insurance Company UK Limited is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority.

	allows them the flexibility to receive medical treatment locally, outside of their country of residence or that allows them to return to their native home country for medical treatment. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • High Net Worth (HNW) globally mobile – Customers who are looking for benefit rich products that can provide access to medical treatment anywhere in the world. • High Net Worth (HNW) locals – Customers who reside in their native home country but are looking to access quality medical treatment abroad as well as to supplement their local healthcare provision. The products are designed to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Extend to include a partner, dependent children of the lead member, partner's children, stepchildren and adopted children. • Allow children to be set up on a policy with a parent or legal to guardian holding the insurance contract (but without cover for the adult). • Allow customers to choose the option to declare their medical history as an alternative to moratorium underwriting; and • Allow those who are no longer eligible for healthcare cover under an AXA – Global Healthcare arranged group scheme to take out an individual policy on a continuation of cover basis
Who is the product not appropriate for?	These products are not designed for people: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Who reside, or would intend to travel for medical treatment, in a country subject to International Sanctions; • Who are looking for travel insurance to cover emergency medical treatment for trips of up to 95 days; • In the armed forces or professional sports players seeking cover for injuries sustained in relation to their professional activities; or • Individuals who require locally admitted cover, outside the UK; or • Who are happy to self-fund all or most of their health and wellbeing needs outside of any mandatory healthcare requirements or state healthcare provision.
What customer need is met by this product?	This product is designed for individuals seeking international private healthcare cover to meet their health and wellbeing needs, goals, and budget.

Target market – are there any specific characteristics, including, customer vulnerability, that you should be aware of?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. “Individuals or companies under financial strain e.g., due to the impact of the pandemic may not be able to afford premiums on an ongoing basis. However, their employees will still be able to use the NHS for their medical treatment. 2. Employees who have ongoing or recent medical symptoms, whether they have seen a doctor or been diagnosed with a specific condition or not, are unlikely to be able to use this product to receive private treatment for those symptoms.
What are the key value elements/ characteristics of the product that are important for the target market (including notable exclusions)?	These comprehensive private health insurance products provide customers with access to a range of services for eligible conditions, diagnostics and treatments including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In-patient and day patient treatment; • Surgical out-patient treatment; • Cancer treatment; • Access to healthcare experts; and • Emergency evacuation and repatriation. A fully comprehensive private international health insurance product may be out of reach for many, so these products offer choice and affordability through offering several levels of cover. Customers can select from a range of plans to fit their needs with benefits, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Specialist consultations and diagnostic tests as an out-patient; • Out-patient therapies e.g. physiotherapist; • Complementary practitioner charges; • New chronic conditions; • Mental health treatments; • Pregnancy and childbirth cover; • Annual health checks; • Optical cover; • Dental treatment; and • Travel Insurance. Depending on the plan level selected customers can also choose the option to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increased out-patient benefits; • Increased dental benefits; and • Travel Insurance. Customers can also tailor benefits to meet their needs and goals by making changes to how the plan responds in the event of a claim by choosing from a range of excess options. This option could potentially be used by the target market to mitigate short term financial vulnerability.

Does the product include optional covers?	Plan cover will vary based on option selected.
How should this product be distributed?	The distribution strategy is considered appropriate for the target market with customers having the option to purchase direct from AXA – Global Healthcare or a private health insurance specialist intermediary of their choice. These products are considered suitable for advised and non-advised sales by suitably skilled agents via telephone, face to face or an appropriately designed on-line journey. AXA – Global Healthcare’s customer outcomes assessment procedures will help to identify if the product is reaching customers outside the intended target
What should distributors do to ensure the product provides fair value to the end customer?	To ensure the customer receives fair value for this product, care must be taken to ensure no duplicate cover exists or is caused by an add-on where that cover is already provided by the policy. Commission, fees, or charges passed onto the customer must be proportionate to the service provided and provide fair value.
How can the product be sold? Can it be sold without advice?	We would suggest that this product can be sold face to face or via telephone. This product can be sold with or without advice depending on your preference and in line with FCA regulations.
How is value assessed?	AXA XL has established a product governance process to oversee the design, approval, and review of all our products in line with the requirements of the FCA’s Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (‘PROD’). New product developments and changes to existing products are taken through a formal product approval process which is designed to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the target market and its needs. • Review policy wording and customer facing documentation to ensure it is clear, fair, and not misleading • consider the needs of any vulnerable customers; and • monitor post-sales performance. • Once a new or amended product is introduced to the market, AXA XL will annually review the product on a fair value assessment basis, using key performance metrics to see if any remedial actions are required and to make sure it

	remains suitable for customers in the identified target market. If, as a distributor of AXA XL products, you consider one of our products may be failing to meet customers' needs or is potentially unclear you can help us by providing feedback through your usual point of contact at AXA XL.
Additional Product Literature:	This document is to be read in conjunction with the appropriate policy wording.